“41st NAACP IMAGE AWARDS” SUBMISSIONS PERIOD NOW OPEN

Special to Air in 2010 on FOX

As the culminating event in the NAACP’s centennial celebration, the 41st NAACP IMAGE AWARDS will air in February, 2010 on FOX. Submission applications are now being accepted, it was announced today by Vicangelo Bulluck, executive producer of the telecast.

The 41st NAACP IMAGE AWARDS is the nation’s premier event celebrating the outstanding achievements and performances of people of color in the arts (motion picture, television, recording, and literature), as well as those individuals or groups who promote social justice through their creative endeavors.

The annual ceremony is currently accepting submissions for all categories. Studios, networks, production companies, record labels, publishing houses, publicists, agents, managers and artists may submit for nomination. All submissions must be received at the NAACP Image Awards Submissions Office in Los Angeles by Monday, Nov. 16 at 6:00 PM PT to be eligible for consideration.

Eligible projects must have been distributed nationally between Jan. 1, 2009 and Dec. 31, 2009. The nominees will be announced at a press conference on Wednesday, Jan. 6, 2010. For forms, instructions and a complete list of submission categories, email imagesub@naacpnet.org or call (323) 938-2789.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) is the nation’s oldest and largest civil rights organization. The organization’s half-million adult and youth members throughout the United States and the world are the premier advocates for civil rights in their communities and monitor equal opportunity in the public and private sectors.
