NOMINEES FOR 39TH NAACP IMAGE AWARDS ANNOUNCED LIVE AT PRESS CONFERENCE BY MARA BROCK AKIL, RICHARD T. JONES, "ENTERTAINMENT TONIGHT'S" KEVIN FRAZIER AND NAACP EXECUTIVES

The 39TH NAACP IMAGE AWARDS Airs Live Thursday, February 14 On FOX

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., (January 8, 2008) -- The 39th NAACP Image Awards nominees were announced today during a press conference at The Beverly Hilton Hotel. Richard T. Jones (Actor, Terminator: The Sarah Connor Chronicles), Kevin Frazier (Host, Entertainment Tonight) and Mara Brock Akil (Exec. Producer/Writer, The Game and Girlfriends) joined Dennis Hayes, interim President of the NAACP, along with NAACP Image Awards Committee Chair, Clayola Brown, and Vicangelo Bulluck, Executive Producer, to announce the categories and nominees. The 39th NAACP Image Awards will air live on Thursday, February 14 (8:00 – 10:00 PM ET/PT Tape-Delayed) on FOX.

The NAACP Image Awards honors projects and individuals that promote diversity in the arts in television, recording, literature and motion pictures. The theme of this year's show is "Stand Up and Be Counted." During this crucial election year, the NAACP encourages everyone to be socially conscious and take a stand on critical human and civil rights issues.

Additionally, in recognition that today's environmental crisis will become tomorrow's civil rights issues, this year the NAACP is incorporating eco-friendly initiatives to reduce the Image Award's carbon footprint and reduce the ceremonies impact on the world's climate.

This year, over 1,200 entries were received. From those entries, a special committee of 300 industry professionals and NAACP leaders from across the country selected five nominees in each of 44 categories. Any artist, manager, publicist, production company, record label, studio, network or publishing house could submit an entry to the NAACP Image Awards. The final selections are voted on by NAACP members, and winners will be announced during the live airing of the 39th NAACP Image Awards.
